Indie Film Workshop

Sunday, November 4, 11, 18 1:00 – 4:00 pm Course # 24202

Open to teens in Grades 5 – 12.

This three-part workshop will give up-and-coming directors the opportunity to learn how to produce their own films. The instructor will teach core filmmaking skills of screenwriting and storyboarding, technique and medium, and editing and production. Students will utilize these valuable tools to produce their own films.

Fees: $100/Members, $125/Community Participants

Broadway Trip to see LEGALLY BLONDE!

Sunday, December 2

Course # 24207

Open to teens in Grades 6 – 12

After a pair of hit movies, beloved Elle Woods has stepped into the spotlight at Broadway's Palace Theater. A new musical version of LEGALLY BLONDE began performances in April 2007, and everyone's talking about how this overachieving fashionista is working her magic on the stage. The price includes a kosher lunch, transportation, and tickets for the show. Seats are limited, so register by November 2!

Fees: $120/Members, $145/Community Participants

Red Cross Babysitter Training Course

Sunday, December 9, 16, January 6 1:00 – 4:00 pm Course # 24203

Participants must be at least 11 years old, and attend all sessions to receive certification.

Learn the five components of becoming a successful babysitter: leadership, safety, basic care, first aid, and business basics. This course will teach potential babysitters about their role and responsibilities, as well as decision-making and problem-solving skills. Through group activities, role-playing scenarios, and movies, you will learn the key to becoming a successful babysitter. Babysitting handbooks and a babysitting safety and first-aid kit will be distributed to all participants. All participants will receive a certificate after completion.

Fees: $65/Members, $80/Community Participants
